Everlasting God, who was and is, and is to come, we do not want to separate, we do not want to alienate, and we do not want to forsake. But we know what the future holds. In the breaking of the bread, we thank you for reminding us of our need and of your sufficiency. In our drinking from the cup, we thank you for reminding us of your forgiveness. As the night advances, deepen in us a sense of your steadfast love in and through Jesus Christ. Amen

Leader: What part of ourselves is found in the shadow of the mob that streamed to Calvary?

People: What part of ourselves creates nails in other forms that wound our brothers and sisters – and our God?

Leader: Let us pray together...

Tonight, we realize that we have not kept our eyes upon your saving cross, nor listened with undivided attention to your voice. As the realities of this night and the days ahead set in, turn us, O Lord. Stretch our boundaries, stir our hearts, and inflame our souls to behold you in every fragment of life, to feel you in every moment of time, and to serve you on every occasion with obedience and joy. Amen.
